DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-6 in the reply filed on July 06, 2004 is acknowledged.

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yamamoto (US 6,661,965 B2).

Regarding claim 1, Yamamoto discloses an editing apparatus (Fig. 2) for editing material data recorded on a tape-shaped recording medium, characterized by comprising:

fast access means (rewinding and fast-forwarding disclosed in col. 5, lines 46-53 and col. 6, lines 45-57) for detecting a marker recorded on said tape-shaped recording medium by a fast access to said tape-shaped recording medium;

data registering means (storing the near-in-point material objects IM and the near-out-point material object OM on the hard disk unit 2 disclosed in col. 6, lines 26-35 and in col. 7, lines 14-20) for registering said material data, read out from said tape-shaped recording medium according to the detection of said marker by said fast access means, onto a give file;

data display means (display unit 8 disclosed in col. 8, lines 22-33) for displaying said material data registered on said file; and editing list making means (editing processing unit 2BC disclosed in col. 12, lines 9-20) for making out an edit list of said material data by using said material data displayed on said data display means.

Regarding claim 2, Yamamoto also discloses the claimed that said material data are image data (displaying the video bars disclosed in col. 8, lines 34-50).

Regarding claim 3, Yamamoto further discloses the claimed that said data display means displays the editing point defined with the material data specified by a given input manipulation from among said displayed material data at the position specified by said input manipulation on the time axis (displaying the video bars disclosed in col. 8, lines 34-50).

Method claims 4-6 are rejected for the same reasons as discussed in apparatus claims 1-3, respectively.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The cited references relate to editing apparatus.
